About the Impact Council

A collective of the most innovative leaders in business, the Impact Council amplifies members through their thought leadership and connects them several times a year for live events, roundtable discussions, and virtual sessions on some of the most promising opportunities and most pressing challenges of our time. These gatherings focus on the role companies and council members can play in shaping the future. Participation is by invitation and is nontransferable.

About Fast Company

Fast Company is the only media brand dedicated to chronicling the future of business. Our writers and editors focus on bringing our readers a new perspective on the world around us, and we share our discoveries through our exclusive franchise coverage.

Through in-depth storytelling and thought-leadership coverage, we consider and amplify how innovators in the world of technology, design, and business strategy are shaping the future.

01

Deepen your thought leadership

Imagine that the FC Impact Council is your business think tank—a body of the most inventive founders, energetic CEOs, designers and artists, and visionaries—coming together to share knowledge, ideas, and perspectives on business, society, innovation, and design.

- Impact Council members are invited to work directly with a member of our editorial team to submit pieces of thought leadership for publication on fastcompany.com.
- Key conversations from our events will be spotlighted on fastcompany. com, and a special edition of the Fast Company print magazine features insights from the Impact Council Annual Meeting. The names and affiliations of all council members will be included in the issue as well.
- All Impact Council members are eligible to nominate themselves to become a speaker at our events.

02

Attend curated events and moments for Impact Council members

Impact Council Annual Meeting

Each year, council members will gather for a full day of open discussions and roundtables highlighting their viewpoints on the most urgent business and societal issues of the day.

Fast Company Innovation Festival

Our team will help craft a curated experience for members who attend the Fast Company Innovation Festival, which takes place in New York. Members will also have an opportunity to nominate themselves as potential speakers at the festival.

Virtual Programming

From exclusive publishing workshops with your dedicated editor to panels with our editor-in-chief, our virtual programming gives you the chance to learn from and connect with fellow members and staff on the Fast Company editorial team.

Bespoke Dinners

Members are invited to join special dinners throughout the year to mingle, ideate, and build relationships with fellow council members.

03 Build powerful connections

With more than 80% of Impact Council members part of the C-suite or founders, in diverse industries, you're bound to make transformational connections. You'll also have a chance to connect with Fast Company's editors, who will rely on you frequently as a council member for your expertise, acumen, and perspectives. Both virtual and live programming opportunities will allow you to connect and co-create.
